

Multicultural craft fair

Meet great authors of color!

Rainbow Bookfest: Celebrating Authors of Color

Saturday, April 28, 2007 9:30 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Asian Resource Center
1025 S. King St.
Chinatown/I.D., Seattle

To reserve a booth or for more information, visit www.rainbowbookfest.com or e-mail

Carmen Palomera
at palomera239@comcast.net

Free admission!

- Readings of authors' works
- Workshops & panel discussions
 - Multicultural vendors
- Dramatic Presentation Contest
 - Kids' activities
- Art & essay contest ceremony

Keynote speaker

Kathleen Alcalá

Kathleen is the author of a short-story collection, Mrs. Vargas and the Dead Naturalist (Calyx), and three novels set in 19th-century Mexico: Spirits of the Ordinary, The Flower in the Skull, and Treasures in Heaven.

www.rainbowbookfest.com

Organized by the Northwest
Asian Weekly Foundation
P.O. Box 3468, Seattle, WA 98114
Tel: 206-223-0623; Fax: 206-223-0626
info@nwasianweekly.com
www.nwasianweekly.com